YOUR GUIDE TO GIFTS OF REGISTERED RETIREMENT FUNDS (RRSPs & RRIFs)

BENEFITS TO YOU

- Simple and Convenient – Easy to arrange. Simply ask your financial institution to change the beneficiary designation to Kids Cancer Care Foundation of Alberta.
- Tax Advantages – A tax-effective means of supporting Kids Cancer Care Foundation of Alberta.
- Control – You retain the use of the investment during your lifetime. Your gift is not a matter of public record so you may remain anonymous. Unlike a will, your gift cannot be contested.
- Flexible – The designation is revocable and can be changed if your financial circumstances alter.
- Cost Effective – There are no extra out-of-pocket costs.

Donating registered assets such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan (RRSP) or a Registered Retirement Income Fund (RRIF) allows you to create a legacy for Kids Cancer Care Foundation of Alberta – once your needs and those of your loved ones have been met. Donating all or part of an RRSP or RRIF is an effective way to reduce the taxes payable by your estate.

If you die without a surviving spouse or qualifying dependents, the remaining value of your RRSP or RRIF is added to your income in the year of death, often generating large tax liabilities for your estate. If you leave your RRSP or RRIF to Kids Cancer Care Foundation of Alberta, however, your estate will receive a charitable donation receipt for the entire value of the plan. This will help to offset any tax liability.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

There are two ways to donate the proceeds of an RRSP or RRIF:

1. You can name Kids Cancer Care Foundation of Alberta as the direct beneficiary. Upon your death, the proceeds will be paid directly to the Foundation without going through probate.
2. You can name your estate as the beneficiary of your RRSP or RRIF and leave instructions in your will to donate all or part to Kids Cancer Care Foundation of Alberta. You may specify a percentage of the RRSP or RRIF to be gifted or a specific dollar amount. The donation qualifies for the charitable bequest donation tax credit for up to 100% of income in the year of death and in the year preceding. Please know that when choosing this option, your executor will withhold taxes and probate will apply.
